TEMPORARY DIVERSION LICENCES

www.youthwatercouncil.com

WHAT SHOULD LANDOWNERS KNOW?

Water is a finite resource and TDLs ensure that water remains available for agricultural, industrial, recreational, and household uses.

WHAT IS A TDL?

A TDL, or Temporary Diversion Licence, is a Licence granted to allow a short term diversion (or withdrawal) of water from a natural body of water

WHY ARE THEY IMPORTANT?

TDLs help preserve the quality and quantity of Alberta watersheds, as well as providing a record of water withdrawal from bodies of water
